'SOD-BUSTERS' TO FEATURE PROGRAM HALLOWEEN NIGHT

Lemon Sheets' Famed Artists From Rural District to Entertain.

Acting independently of the merchants of Mishawaka who have for the past few years provided an outdoor entertainment for the young and grown-up folks of the city on Halloween night, Lemon Sheets, well known farmer of Penn township, will this year take up the burden of presenting to Halloween revelers one of the "biggest and best" entertainments of the kind ever featured in Mishawaka on a similar occasion.

A. C. Hazanger, formerly a dry-goods merchant here, who has for some time been the leading spirit on such occasions, is out again and the entertainment, so far as the merchant is concerned, has been allowed to drop. However, "Lemon" and his "sod-buster" band of musicians, accompanied by hundreds of country folks fully decked in seeking and nondescript costumes peculiar to the occasion, will come to town in hay racks and pitch tent at the corner of Third and Main sts., where they will put on a two-hour entertainment that will make a grand opera company program sound like thirty cents. There will be real old-fashioned country dances in character, songs that will make the winkle ring with melody, a special dramatic characterization by the master of ceremonies, Lemon Sheets, for which he has been practising for several weeks, as well as various other stunts, that will send the crowds away to soap the windows and carry on other kinds of hilarious devilment that will make the merchants as mad as March hares when they come to business the following morning.

Watch the newspapers for further particulars of the sod-busters program of classical and profoundly original operatic selections.

ENTERTAINS WEDNESDAY. Mrs. R. W. Goossens, 109 W. Lawrence st., entertained 17 ladies Wednesday afternoon. Music was featured. Delightful refreshments were served.

WELL-KNOWN COUPLE TO OBSERVE 44TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY FRIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ostrander, 1802 W. Lincoln way, will celebrate their 44th wedding anniversary next Friday. Their daughter, Mrs. E. D. Uhendorf, of Chicago, who is here for the occasion, will also observe her birthday anniversary. Another daughter, Mrs. W. H. Imbody, and two children of Fort Wayne, will also be of the party.

Lad Enters Front Door; Man Leaves From Back

Crying that he had just seen a man run out of his house toward the railroad, a little lad who states that he lived at 1715 Lincolnway W. ran into a neighboring house, and asked for help, Wednesday evening.

The neighbor who answered the door with great presence of mind, immediately called the local police department, but before their arrival, an armed posse had entered the "robbed" house, but could find no sign of anything being disturbed.

When pressed for a description, the youngster said that just as he entered the house, a tall man, wearing a red sweater, stepped from the back door and sped in the direction of the New York Central tracks. A thorough search of all the neighborhood, however, failed to reveal any trace of the fugitive.

Meager as the description given by the youngster, it tallies closely with that of a man who has been seen prowling in various parts of the town, where the "villian" is said to have entered several houses while the occupants were absent, although nothing of any intrinsic value has been missed.

HALLOWEEN PARTIES

The first meeting of the season of the Patron-Teachers' club of Battell school was held yesterday afternoon with an attendance of 117 members. A business meeting was held after which a Halloween party in charge of Miss Ethel Finch was featured. The program illustrative of the event was a capital one. Pumpkins and fall Coast Line dropping 1-3-4 points.

foliage were used as decoration. The women of Mooseheart Legion, Chapter No. 28, also enjoyed a similar event at the Moose hall last evening. There was a large attendance and the program was enjoyed to the utmost.

The Goodwill Circle of the First Christian church will hold a Halloween party in the church parlors tonight.

PLAN HALLOWEEN PARTY.

INDUSTRIAL STOCKS OBJECT OF ATTACK

Professional Interests Cause Losses of 1 to 4 Points at New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—(By A. P.)

Professional short interest launched anew their successful attack against industrial stocks in today's stock market, causing losses on one to four points among a number of active issues. Railroad shares offered more stubborn resistance, a number of eastern carriers mounting to higher ground under the influence of a brisk demand for Reading and Pennsylvania, each at top price for the year.

Weakness of foreign exchange market was the further depreciation of French franc to 7.02 each, another new record for the year. Selling of francs was predicted on a huge government deficit and the possibility of a default in reparations payments because of the serious German economic crisis. Cable advice reported British buying of dollars with French money. A heavy offering of cotton and grain bills kept the rates for demand sterling around $1.44 in this market. German marks sold around 2 1-4 cents a hundred.

Dividend Resumed.

The most constructive market factor of the day was the resumption of the 6 percent dividend on the common stock of the Pennsylvania railroad, recognized as barometer of railroad and trade conditions. In response to this action, Pennsylvania touched 49 1-2, the highest price in four years. Further accumulation of Reading, based in part on expectation of an extra distribution from Central Railroad of New Jersey, sent that stock up to 87 1-8, a new top, but it dropped later to 86 3-4, up 1 7-8 above yesterday's close. Mixed changes prevailed among the other rail shares, Atlantic

Reports that the American Locomotive company was planning a partial distribution of its surplus of more than $25,000,000 were held partly responsible for the rapid rise of that stock in the final hour, the closing price, 130, being 1 5-8 points above yesterday's close and 4 5-8 above the low of the day.

Professional pressure against the motor shares was concentrated on Studebaker, which sold off 2 3-4 points on unconfirmed rumors that no extra dividend was likely at the next meeting.

Strength of Consolidated Gas, which touched 144 and closed at 142 5-8 up 1 3-8, reflected reports that the company was contemplating a splitting up of its shares to be followed by an increase in dividend. Krueger, which slumped five points yesterday, closed six points higher today and Manhattan Shirt broke through to another high in reflection of higher earnings. Houston Oil was pushed up more than two points.

Steel Shares Down.

Steel shares continued their downward course despite the optimistic tone of the trade reviewers. U. S. Steel common dropping a point to 106 1-2; Republic yielding 1 3-4; Indiana 1 1-2 and Crucible one. Mexican Petroleum receded one point on comparatively light dealings.

Cal money opened at 4 1-4 percent and held at that figure until just before the close, when it advanced to 4 1-5. There was an increase in the demand for time money for three and six months at 4 3-4 percent but bankers were still demanding 5, a moderate amount of business.

The feature of the foreign exchange market was the further depreciation of French franc to 7.02 each, another new record for the year. Selling of francs was predicted on a huge government deficit and the possibility of a default in reparations payments because of the serious German economic crisis.
